PROFILE

Emma knows how to keep busy, as well as working full time for the AFL, helping to develop the female coaching curriculum, she also works part time as a P.E teacher. She had an impressive first season as a priority pick in the inaugural AFL women's competition for the Western Bulldogs and also plays cricket for the Melbourne Stars in the WBBL. She has also represented Victoria for Cricket and was an All Australian 2017 team member.

Emma has a Bachelor of Physical Education from Ballarat University and in her small amount of spare time she enjoys listening to music and describes herself as a "big foodie" as she loves cooking and going out for dinner. She comes from a sporty family and grew up playing footy with her brothers.

Emma is a great asset to her footy team as a skilled, tough player that works hard, she is also a skillful fast bowler that contributes equally to her cricket.
